

Bakewell Methodist Junior School

RE knowledge organiser

Vocabulary

Key questions

Commitment: What's that? What are we committed to, and how does it show?

How do paintings by Christians today express beliefs about Jesus and the worship of God?

Why do Christians think Jesus is an inspiration? How does being committed to Jesus make a difference?

The Covenant Prayer: what can we learn?

What codes for living do Christians try to follow?

Christianity	It is the world's largest religion, with about 2.5 billion followers
Commitment	being dedicated to a cause or activity.
Methodist	Methodists are Christians who follow the teachings of John Wesley and who have their own branch of the Christian church and their own form of worship.
Bible	The Bible is the holy scripture of the Christian religion.
Covenant prayer	Methodists hold an annual Covenant Service to celebrate all that God means to them. They say the Covenant prayer during this service
John Wesley	is the founder of Methodism.

Methodist unit-
Commitment to Christianity: Is it long ago and far away, or is it here and now?

Sticky Knowledge

Methodists hold an annual Covenant Service to celebrate all that God means to them.

John Wesley (1703-1791) is the founder of Methodism.

John Wesley's rule of conduct-

*Do all the good you can.
By all the means you can.
In all the ways you can.
In all the places you can.
At all the times you can.
To all the people you can.
As long as ever you can.*

Below are five examples of Methodist art we will be studying this term. Please see <https://www.methodist.org.uk/our-faith/life-and-faith/the-methodist-modern-art-collection/> for more examples.

